Responsible investing groups zero in on Pebble Mine

By MARY PEMBERTON
Associated Press

Published: 04/12/11 12:47:22

Investor groups are urging the Environmental Protection Agency to look closely at plans for a huge copper and gold mine in southwest Alaska.

The coalition of nearly 30 investor groups is being led by Trillium Asset Management Corp. and Calvert Investments. The groups hold over 13 million shares in Anglo American plc, which is partnering with Northern Dynasty Minerals to develop the world-class minerals deposit near Bristol Bay.

The investor organizations are urging the EPA to do a full-scale review of the project with the focus on mining waste.
